

AD 242

Manichaeism - a heresy introduced in Persia by MANI, about 242. It taught religious dualism, with a constant struggle going on in man's nature between two deities,
God and Satan

242

C216-C277 MANES (w. MANICHAEUS)

A religious teacher in Babylon (242)
His religious system of Manichaeism was based upon the Persian dual system.

242

In the Roman army that the emperor Gorelion III led against the Persians in 242, there were Germanic and GOTHIC peoples

SCYTHIANS

GOTHS

Goths were mentioned in the army of Gordian III during the campaign against the Persians

C 242 AD

MANICHAISM originated in Persia. In the 12th and 13th Centuries, it took on the form of Albigensianism and Catharism.